FOREWORD

While the past three years may not have been harder than others, they have given us plenty of experience and variety.

We are sorry for the poor report issued this year but the expense was necessary in giving the town the service required and while there was a loss in the year's operations our best efforts were given in preventing a greater one. Much of the extra expense was for plowing and shoveling snow but men at this work were fighting day and night to keep more than one hundred miles of roads clear over some of the roughest part of the state and they deserve the greatest praise that they were able to do so and at no more cost. Although we overran our fund for snow removal by more than $1800 early last March, our finances were in good condition up to the first of this year, when a combination of events were met that our treasury was not equal to. The new snow plow, upon which we depended, failed to give the service represented for it; it was a beautiful plow and was praised by all who saw it but it was too heavy for our hills and would not operate safely or properly on our type of roads. We were immediately obliged to buy new plows and trade this one for side wings, which were needed. Excepting for the wasted time not much harm is done but we had to buy some equipment a year ahead.

We were threatened with a mad-dog epidemic and did not hesitate to make every protection possible against it; this, with damages paid, cost over $1000 but the disease is a terrible affliction and if we prevented the loss of a single life the cost is as nothing.

The subjects of unemployment and relief are too well known to mention here. There were other extraordinary expenses which cost hundreds of dollars but in some cases a part of the money will come back. Pestered by blizzards, flood and fires, it was a trying year.

At the time of my election I desired to put certain ideas into effect and while the town's acceptance of the highway assessment prevented much of this from being done, some of the improvements were achieved and while what has been done needs no comment here, it is of great satisfaction to me. It was my hope that the close of my term would find the town absolutely clear of debt and the tax rate lowered to $25.00 but the above-mentioned highway assessment of $10,520, together with some unpaid notes for former emergencies formed a debt of $16,700. We have kept pecking away at this and last fall the town did not owe one dollar excepting for the remaining payments on the highway note due next December now about $3000. We had to borrow, however, and the already mentioned expenses prevented repayment.

I have often wondered how automobile roads were to be kept open during an old fashioned winter and the past twelve months is the answer. We must prepare for every year to be as bad and if every road is to be kept plowed, as is demanded, $4000 a year must be raised for the purpose, with an increase in the tax rate of $3.60 on each thousand dollars of valuation.

Among the further improvements I would like and still hope to see are a new town building with offices, fire house, a good jail and rest rooms for the public all combined; fire protection for Canaan Street, a park at West Canaan and building of the Mt. Cardigan boulevard, which would be a broad, tree-lined road and the finest in town, from the Fair Grounds bridge to the Orange line and absolutely straight as far as Orel K. Davis' house. There is now a bill for this in the legislature which we hope will pass.

We wish to call your attention to the twenty miles of improved roads built in town in the past two years as unemployment relief and very few of our citizens can realize the change that has been made but we can say that our back roads are far superior to those of most other towns and compare well with any; the work should go on until every foot of highway is completed. Our finances are in splendid condition due to capable management for many years past and the town's credit is the highest. The affairs are in good hands, the liabilities are the smallest in many years and the future is bright.

In closing I wish to express my gratitude for the opportunity given me by the citizens to serve them and say that I have done the best I could; while of course not always right, it has been my aim to first be just to all and next to protect the town's interests to the best of my ability. I wish to express the very highest regard for all who served with me as well as those before me. The associations without exception have been among the most pleasant I have ever known and are terminated with the deepest regret. I wish my successors the best of fortune and the town the prosperity it deserves. It is a great little town that has met its difficulties in a remarkable manner and every citizen should give it all help possible to make it even bigger and better.

RALPH T. BARNEY,
Retiring Selectman.

Report of the Town Agent

FOR THE YEAR ENDING JANUARY 31, 1935

Summary of Receipts

Cash on hand January 31, 1935	$ 36.05
Received from redemption of town liens	664.98
Received from sale of town property	2,336.70
Received from rental of town property	61.00
		$3,098.73
Paid to Selectmen		$3,098.73
Town Agent's expenses paid by Selectmen		103.69

During the past year four pieces of property owned by the town were disposed of at public sale, as follows:

July 21	Florence Shuttleworth land and buildings to F. A. Bogardus	$550.00
July 21	Lester Hamel field, west of highway, to Wilbur J. Lovring	500.00
July 21	C. P. King store and building, to Henri Gagnon	230.00
July 21	Norcross Bros. granite quarry, to Milo L. Knight	150.00

The Mary E. Bristol place on Church street was repurchased by Mrs. Warren B. Bowker upon fulfilment of terms made by Judge James B. Wallace, former town agent, and substantial payments towards repurchase were made by the Julia Irving Estate, the Dennis Lary heirs and Mrs. Maud Marshall.

It seems altogether desirable to dispose of town-owned property at the first opportunity to sell at anything like a reasonable price. Such property, buildings particularly, is a constant expense to the town if properly maintained, and if neglected, its depreciation is rapid and even more costly. The Brickelmaier house on Canaan Street is beginning to represent quite a sizable investment by the town. No tenant could be found last season; its prospects for redemption by the former owner seem remote, and it would appear that offering the property for sale the coming spring would be well-advised.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD A. BARNEY,
Town Agent.
